The National Youth Alliance (NYA) is an extremist white youth organization at Washington, D.C.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is not identifiable in WFO files.

Inasmuch as NYA advocates right-wing revolutionary action to destroy the existing system and has published articles in the past instructing readers on the construction and deployment of explosives and incendiaries and the techniques of guerrilla warfare, the possibility of influencing individual acts of violence cannot be discounted.

San Francisco is requested to discreetly identify [REDACTED] and determine his connections, if any, with extremist activities in the Berkeley area.

RICHARDSON: From Al think the plan would establish the "public confidence" that is essential.

Meserve voiced his objections "solely as a citizen and lawyer" in a letter to Eastland and House Judiciary Chairman Peter Rodino Sr. (D-N.J.).

"With all deference to Mr. Richardson," Meserve said, "I believe that the prosecutor should not report to the Attorney General, particularly as to evidence, if any, which might be thought to involve the office of a President who has, three times, nominated Mr. Richardson to important public positions."

Now Secretary of Defense, Richardson has also served in the Nixon administration as Under Secretary of State and as Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

A longstanding friend of Richardson's, Meserve said he had "complete confidence" in Richardson's integrity. But he said the investigation must have the appearance of independence as well as the substance.

As a result, Meserve said he felt it would be best to set up "a special agency, with a separate and adequate budget, supervised by the independent prosecutor," even if special legislation is necessary.

Since the prosecutor ought to be accountable to some higher authority, Meserve suggested creation at the same time of a supervisory body or commission, perhaps composed of senior or retired federal judges.

Along with Republican senators on the Judiciary Committee, Richardson has taken the tack that the need for a special prosecutor to take over the far-flung investigations stemming from the Watergate break-in is too urgent to be postponed for the time needed to nurse new laws through Congress.

Beyond that, Richardson has said that he has no desire to be Attorney General if he cannot be trusted with "ultimate responsibility" for the Watergate case.

Skeptical Democrats on the committee have indicated that Richardson's confirmation will be held up until they have an opportunity to question the special prosecutor and examine the written charter of authority that Richardson has promised to give him.

Summarizing the dilemma at yesterday's session, Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich.) said he was confident "that if the facts led to involvement of the President, Elliot Richardson, whether he had a special prosecutor or not, would name the President."

But, Hart said, "the real problem is if the facts don't involve the President, who will believe Elliot Richardson when he says the don't."

Richardson replied that it would be impossible, in any event, for a special prosecutor to "prove a negative." Prosecutors, he said, deal in courtroom verdicts, but, he emphasized, "a 'not guilty' verdict is not a declaration of innocence. ... If it is a negative that has to be proved, it may require some separate new mechanism," perhaps Sen. Sam J. Ervin's Senate investigating committee or a final review and report on all the investigations by an independent panel.

With the hearings adjourned yesterday afternoon "at the call of the chair," Richardson told reporters that he hopes to consult here before the end of the week with the three "finalists" for the prosecutor's job. They are former Deputy Attorney General Christopher, 47, now a Los Angeles lawyer; David W. Peck, 71, former presiding justice of the New York Supreme Court's appellate division, and Judge William H. Erickson, 49, of the Colorado Supreme Court.

Since each might have a variety of personal, financial and other reasons for not taking the post, Richardson said, he wants to sound them out first before making any more offers.

"It wouldn't be helpful to keep a scorecard on who's turned it down," Richardson said. He said he was anxious

"not to depreciate the with more refusals.

At that point, William Pierce of the far right National Youth Alliance, has been attending the hearings in hopes of testifying against Richardson's nomination, challenged Richardson on his old driving record. It reportedly involved more than a dozen traffic violations between 1938 and 1958, some involving liquor. Pierce demanded to know that ought not disqualify him as Attorney General.

Richardson quietly replied that he thought not and the subject had been thoroughly explored by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee when he was nominated as Under Secretary of State. Of his traffic record he said: "If it shows anything, it shows at least I never tried to fix a tick-

The National Youth Alliance (NYA) is an organization originally formed from a nucleus of Youth for (George C.) Wallace supporters following the 1968 Presidential election for the purpose of countering radical leftist and anarchist influences on the campuses of American colleges and universities. NYA currently is controlled by individuals who militantly promote white racism and anti-Zionism and who suggest violent revolution ultimately as the means for implementing their radical and political ideas in America.

Re WFO airtel and LHM dated 6/8/73, which set forth information concerning a proposed protest demonstration against the visit of Soviet Communist Party Leader, LEONID I. BREZHNEV, sponsored by CHARLES P. MYLOD as Washington Area Coordinator of Patriots for Action. The National Youth Alliance, extremist white youth organization at Washington, D. C., was named as a participating organization in the proposed demonstration.

A memorandum from the National Park Service, 1100 Ohio Drive, S.W., Washington, D. C., dated 6/18/73, revealed that in conversation with a representative of the National Park Service, MYLOD had agreed to hold the proposed demonstration on the Washington Monument Grounds, rather than in Lafayette Park and on the sidewalk in front of the White House, Washington, D. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 122, Manual of Instructions, the following predication to be used relative to the National Youth Alliance (NYA) is submitted.

REC 68 157-12589-209
This investigation is based upon information which indicates that the National Youth Alliance (NYA) is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, U.S.Code, Sections 245 (b) (3), Chapter 102, 2101-2102, and Chapter 12, 231-233 (Antiriot laws) or 241 (Civil Rights Act of 1968). The NYA originally was formed from a nucleus of Youth for Wallace supporters following the 1968 presidential election for the stated purpose of countering radical leftist and anarchist influences on the campuses of American colleges and universities. This investigation is based upon information which indicates that the National Youth Alliance (NYA) is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, U. S. Code, Sections 245 (b) (3), Chapter 102, 2101-2102, and Chapter 12, 231-233 (Antiriot laws) or 241 (Civil Rights Act of 1968). The NYA originally was formed from a nucleus of Youth for Wallace supporters following the 1968 presidential election for the stated purpose of countering radical leftist and anarchist influences on the campuses of American colleges and universities. Its efforts to establish in this country a German-type national socialism of the Hitler era emphasize white racist and anti-Semitic policies.

b7c [REDACTED]

The National Youth Alliance (NYA) is an organization originally formed from a nucleus of Youth For (George C.) Wallace supporters following the 1968 presidential election for the purpose of countering radical leftist and anarchist influences on the campuses of American colleges and universities. NYA currently is controlled by individuals who militantly promote white racialism and anti-Zionism and who suggest violent revolution ultimately as the means for implementing their racial and political ideas in America. u

On September 11, 1973, WETA-TV Washington, D.C. (WDC), announced that the National Youth Alliance was among those organizations which had requested an opportunity to be heard by the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate in connection with confirmation hearings on the nomination of Dr. Henry Kissinger to the office of Secretary of State. u

[REDACTED]

b7d [REDACTED]

Camerota's statement before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on September 14, 1973, as transcribed from a broadcast by WETA radio on that date, was as follows: u

"Well I don't want to exceed the ten minutes time limit for it is getting very late this afternoon so I will simply confine myself to a few remarks and most of them will be extemporaneous. First of all, I'm thankful to have the opportunity to address the committee this morning during the confirmation of Henry Kissinger for Secretary of State, but in the opinion of the National Youth Alliance, Kissinger's confirmation would represent a great threat not only to the Internal Security of the United States but to our foreign relations as well." u

"Now, viewing Kissinger's record as chief of the National Security Council objectively, it would seem that u

b7c [REDACTED]

Kissinger is in the habit of promoting security risks. Pentagon papers thief Daniel Ellsberg is one of several security risks to work on the National Security Council as a result of Kissinger's promotion. And we ought to pause momentarily to consider the fact that Ellsberg was responsible for currying a job for James Schlesinger with the Rand Corporation. Two other outstanding security risks promoted by Kissinger are Morton Halperin, a defense witness for Ellsberg, and Helmut Sonnenfeldt, who we've heard a great deal about this morning and who had also leaked confidential information to foreign nationals."

"Now, in considering the international scene, however, Kissinger's brilliance as a politician was readily apparent in his handling of the now famous wheat deal with the Soviet Union. One suspects that the Soviet citizens were wild with enthusiasm in supporting Kissinger's confirmation, since they were certainly on the right side of that wheat deal. But Americans, however, can look forward to higher food prices. Securing the benefits of Kissinger's diplomatic master stroke cost the tax payers some four hundred million dollars and completely clobbered the small wheat farmer."

"No, of course, this is one result of the highly praised detente we've been seeking with the Communists, but yet, in spite of this search for this very elusive detente and all of Kissinger's peace overtures, even the New York Times can continue to print articles entitled 'Soviet Military Continues Tough Line Towards the West', and 'New Younger Soviet Generals Thought to Stress the Offensive.' This comes from the April 23rd issue of the Times this year. Now, the increase of the already considerable Soviet nuclear arsenal amply states the verity of the Times' claim. Now, on the other hand, Kissinger's thinking on this subject can be readily seen in the May 26 SALT agreement which was signed by President Nixon which granted the Soviets a 35% numerical superiority in nuclear weapons."

"Now, when we appraise Mr. Kissinger in light of his actual foreign policy accomplishments to date, instead of his rave reviews in the press, we can only be appalled at the series of catastrophes this supposed diplomatic genius has wrought for America, and I know many of us (Unintelligible) the future as a result of this. Now, considering his so-called peace with honor in Indo China, what Kissinger did was a sort of sleight-of-hand show which was accompanied by a lot of patter. While American troops pulled out, ignominiously leaving the fighting going on in full swing, hundreds of American POW's and Missing in Actions are still unaccounted for. It is indeed difficult to realize that fifty thousand young American men gave their lives in Indo China thinking they were helping to put an end to the menace of Communism, then Mr. Kissinger came along and with a few fast sessions at the conference table rendered all that sacrificed blood and pain totally useless." 4

"His brilliant detentes with two Communist world powers drew rapturous applause from the press gallery and got a lot of Congressmen invited on free junkets to Peking, but the benefits to the American people are less apparent. In order to get Red China into the UN, Kissinger treacherously slipped a knife into our long time ally, Taiwan, and then yanked the rug out from under Japan, and generally caused a frantic reorientation of relations throughout the Asiatic and Pacific area. All to the great advantage of the Communist Chinese, but hardly any advantage to ourselves." 4

"But, in spite of all this, Kissinger should not really be thought of as a dove in spite of all the (Unintelligible) and everything else, mainly because he had arranged a contract that (Unintelligible) by the Rand Corporation in California, which would attempt to (Unintelligible) Russia (Unintelligible) attack on Egypt. One can only wonder whose interest Kissinger was serving (Unintelligible) without the knowledge of either the Secretary of State or Defense. For we must consider the fact that Kissinger is Jewish, and therefore has a personal stake in the fortunes of another nation, that nation being Israel. And with the cessation of large scale military involvement in Indo China, the Middle East has become our number one foreign problem. (Unintelligible) conducting negotiations Kissinger is going to be at an extreme disadvantage by being Jewish. (Unintelligible) have a quote here from Los Angeles Times (Unintelligible) 1973, which bears upon this issue: "Kissinger, whatever his qualifications as Secretary of State, will face a hostile Arab world because he's a Jew". Kissinger's appointment almost will certainly destroy any chance for peace or possible settlement of the Arab-Israeli dispute. (Unintelligible) already demonstrated willingness to commit American military men to that region, but before this committee he had stated, he had advised the President to send American troops into Jordan in 1970 when Syrian tanks rumbled into the land where the American puppet King Hussein was holding sway, mainly to insure that we didn't lose this (Unintelligible) ally and that the real Arab nationalist leader could take over there. Obviously, we were in a position there where we had to pull Israel's chips out of the fire."

[REDACTED]

"Well, the main point with regard to Kissinger, the one that I feel needs to be stressed over and over again, is the fact that a man with divided loyalty cannot serve the best interests of the American people. The NYA represents what we believe to be the majority of people in this country--white, gentile Americans--and because of this we feel that a man from a minority background--a man who has divided loyalties--cannot do the sort of job in the Middle East. I know in my capacity as organizer for the NYA, having gone to many college campuses throughout the country, that the feeling that you see on college campuses is very much against Kissinger's confirmation for reasons I stated earlier. Many of these young men and women feel that with Kissinger's ethnic background to go on the possibility of committing U.S. troops to the region is quite high, although Kissinger's (Unintelligible) notwithstanding. So again, I believe that having Kissinger appointed as Secretary of State may have disastrous consequences for this country and for the majority of people of this country."

"If there are any questions you would like to ask me, with regard to any (Unintelligible)."

"The Washington Post and Times Herald", a daily newspaper published at WDC, on September 15, 1973, contained the following comment on Camerota's appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in an article entitled "Last-Minute Kissinger Critics Get Licks In" by "Washington Post" Staff Writer, Murrey Marder, at Page A-3:

"A stronger ethnic protest against Kissinger was made by Nicholas Camerota, Jr. of Springfield, Mass., for the National Youth Alliance, which Camerota described as a group that represents 'the majority of America . . . white, gentile, America.'" 4

"Kissinger is Jewish and therefore has a personal stake in another nation . . . Israel", said Camerota. Camerota said that Kissinger 'appointed Daniel Ellsberg to a National Security Council position in 1969' - which an NSC official said yesterday is untrue - 'shortly before Ellsberg began stealing' the Pentagon Papers. He said Kissinger also showed 4

b7c

"'deplorably poor judgment' in hiring for the NSC staff 'Morton Halperin and Helmut Sonnenfeldt' who, 'incidentally, are also Jews.'"
